Volunteer Spotlight

ELIZABETH PUTZ

You can catch Elizabeth reading to kids during Toddler Time, helping out at the Beyond Abilities Book Club, and volunteering her time in Youth Services. Elizabeth is a dedicated volunteer and takes pride in every task she completes. When it comes to reading to the kids during early literacy classes, Elizabeth is a natural! She asks questions to keep the kids engaged and always provides the kids with positive encouragement. Customers and library staff look forward to working with her each week.

Her favorite memory is the summer art classes, when she helped kids with different craft projects every week. "It is fun!" she says.

After volunteering, Elizabeth usually sticks around the library to read Pebble Plus books. Most recently, she's been reading about different kinds of animals.

When she's not at the library, she likes to polka dance. She is an Honorary USPA Princess in the United States Polka Association.

Author VISIT

Polly Farquhar
May 4 at 7:00 PM
Pickerington Library
Main

It's everything. It's why everyone calls him Itch—everyone except his best friend Sydney, the only one in all of Ohio who's always on his side, ever since he moved here.

At least Itch has his job at the pheasant farm, which is tough but cool. And most of the guys at school are okay to hang out with, even if they're crazy about college football, and Itch could care less. He's doing the best he can to get along—until everything goes wrong in the middle of a lunch swap. When Sydney collapses and an ambulance is called, Itch blames himself. And he's not the only one.

Polly Farquhar grew up in a small town in upstate New York, graduated from the University at Albany, and then moved to Ohio, earning her MFA in Creative Writing from the Ohio State University.

An excerpt from the book provided by the publisher:

Isaac's sixth grade year gets off to a rough start. A tornado tears the roof off the school cafeteria. His mother leaves on a two month business trip to China. And as always. . . there's the itch. It comes out of nowhere.
