Disclaimer

This employment application does not seek information regarding the applicant's criminal record. However, the Library reserves the right to make inquiry into the applicant's criminal record, to conduct a criminal background check and to condition any offer of employment on the information obtained from any such inquiry or background check. In evaluating an applicant's criminal record, the Library shall make an individualized assessment, utilizing the factors permitted by applicable law.

The Pickerington Public Library is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate against qualified applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, gender, genetic information, sexual orientation, national origin, age, marital status, disability, or veteran status.

Applicant's Certification and Agreement

I hereby certify that the facts set forth in the above employment application are true and complete to the best of my knowledge. I understand that, if employed, falsified statements of any kind or omissions of facts called for on this application shall be considered sufficient basis for dismissal.

I authorize any person, organization or company listed on this application to furnish the Pickerington Public Library any and all information concerning my previous employment, education and qualifications. I further authorize the Pickerington Public Library to request and receive such information.

I understand that should an employment offer be extended to me and accepted that I will fully adhere to the policies, rules and regulations of employment of the Pickerington Public Library. However, I further understand that neither the policies, rules, regulations of employment nor anything said during the interview process shall be deemed to constitute the terms of an implied employment contract. I understand that any employment offered is for an indefinite duration and at will and that either I or the Pickerington Public Library may terminate my employment at any time with or without notice or cause.
